EDITORIAL NOTES

The Toronto ladies want women appointed. If they were young it be all right. There are too man women on the force now.

Mr. J. C. Walsh. of Montreal, has published a pamphlet, charging that the victory won by Baldwin and Lafontane for responsible government and Camphian autonomy is in danger of the min took, and that the battlet may have to be fought over again. By the Boring lost, and that the battle may have to be fought over again. By the Bor-den naval contribution, the principle of self-government, he believes to be en dangered. We are giving assistance without the power of direction. The pamphlet is well worth careful study.
